

First of 6 public meetings tonight

By Rhiannon Meyers | Posted: Tuesday, May 8, 2007 12:00 am

GALVESTON — Galveston County Interfaith leaders will conduct six meetings with parents and residents this month to discuss Galveston school district's reconfiguration plan.

Interfaith leaders will provide information about the reconfiguration ask parents and community members about their concerns and suggest possible solutions.

All parents and residents who attend will be invited to participate in a meeting May 24 with Superintendent Lynne Cleveland to discuss the concerns raised about reconfiguration.

Meetings have been scheduled for:

6:30 p.m. today at the Wright Cuny Park Building 718 41st St.

5:30 p.m. Wednesday at Rosenberg Elementary School 721 10th St.

6:30 p.m. Friday at Zion Lutheran Church 6910 Yucca.

6:30 p.m. May 15 at St. Peter the Apostle Hall 1804 69th St.

Noon May 20 at Galveston Islamic Center 921 Broadway.

4 p.m. May 20 at St. Patrick Catholic Hall 1010 35th St.

A meeting will be held in Spanish 7 p.m. May 16 at Reyna de la Paz 706 51st St.

Under the district's controversial reconfiguration Weis Middle School will house fifth and sixth grades Central Middle School will house seventh and eighth grades and Austin Middle School will house a math and science magnet program for grades five through eight.